

The Network

January General Body Meeting Issue

February is Freshmen Month!

Look out for the following upcoming events:

- Ritz Carlton Chocolate Buffet
- Yoga Night at PowerWorks
- Bubble Tea at the Bubble House
- How to Make Your Own Sushi

Save the Date!

Wharton Women's Annual Summer Alumnae Event
Penn Club New York
Thursday, July 17th
6:30-8:30 PM

Want to get MORE Involved in WW?

The Newsletter and Marketing Committees are both great ways to become involved in Wharton's largest undergraduate organization. Contact Erica Son (Marketing) at eson@sas.upenn.edu or Lauren Fleischer (Newsletter) at laurenrf@wharton.upenn.edu.

Wharton Women Around the World...

Welcome back to all the Wharton Women who studied abroad last semester!

Editor: Lauren Fleischer

Welcome Back Wharton Women!

And a special homecoming to all our juniors who have been abroad— we're happy to have you with us once again! I hope that you had a relaxing winter break, a great start to the second semester, and are ready for yet another incredible year with Wharton Women! I think 2008 brings an extraordinary opportunity for us to grow as an organization and continue to influence your Penn experience. As a firmly established organization we realize that we hold many events that you all have come to cherish like our etiquette dinners and our 101 series—so we want those to stay! But we don't want our past successes to hamper our opportunities for further growth. In order to make WW more meaningful for every member, we want to involve the whole club in our mission of advancing the personal and professional development of our members. So I sincerely ask for your help in making the club better suit your needs. Simply put, we want to hear from you! And we don't just want to hear from you at our GBM's, we want to invite you to our once monthly brainstorming board meetings, hold event planning competitions and make sure that we continue to remain responsive to you. As the largest organization on campus, we have an incredible opportunity to enrich your college experience in ways that classes simply can't. So simply put, take advantage of us! I look forward to a successful year of change and growth and hope that you all make Wharton Women mean something special and unique to you.

All the best,
Shannon

Wontons and Wharton Women! By Erica Son

Wharton Women wastes no time this semester by offering its members a calendar full of fun events. This past Friday, the club held the Welcome Back Social, at one of Philadelphia's trendiest restaurants, Pod. As the first annual event of the year, it was a great way for the new officers to introduce themselves to the members, and an even better way for the members who had studied abroad to meet and greet the club's new members. Over mouthfuls of delicious appetizers, members were really given the chance to get to know each other, reminisce over the fun they had over winter break, and share their plans for the new semester. Overall, the event was a great success and a glimpse of what this semester will be like!

Wharton Women Business Conference By Natalie Kelly

On Friday, February 1, 2008, Wharton Women will be holding its annual Business Conference. Titled "Make Your Mark," the conference is a day-long event where students from Penn and other schools have the opportunity to set themselves apart from the crowd. Through panels, speakers, and workshops, we will explore how to make a lasting impact and take advantage of your opportunities. The event, lasting from 10AM to 5PM in Huntsman Hall, will commence with a keynote speech from Autumn Bayles, the SVP of Strategic Operations of Tasty Baking Company, and will also include a networking lunch. The afternoon will end with a workshop led by Robin Fisher Roffer, the author of Make A Name For Yourself. The conference runs all day so you do not have to stay for the whole event. The Marketing committee will be selling tickets next week at the entrance of Huntsman Hall for $15 for nonmembers and $12 for members. Attire is business formal so pick out your sharpest suit and shiniest shoes and prepare to learn how to distinguish yourself in the business world! Don't forget to pick up a complimentary gift bag with lots of great goodies from local vendors at the end of the conference! Hope to see you there!

January and February Events

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
20: Activities Fair, Houston Hall, 1-5 PM	21: General Body Meeting, Room 240, 6:30 PM	22	23	24	25: Morgan Stanley S&T Trip, 9 AM - 4 PM	26
27	28	29	30	31	1: Business Conference, JMHH 10 AM	2
3	4	5	6: Freshmen Ritz Carlton Chocolate Buffet	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16: Freshmen Social at Bubble Tea
17	18	19: Freshmen Buddies Make Your Own Sushi	20	21	22	23

Wharton Women Forum By Jess White

Where can you find course recommendations, textbook exchanges, scholarship opportunities, and peer advice of all kinds? The Wharton Women Forum at wharton-women.com. You may not have heard of the forum before, as it is one of our most underutilized resources. While we all look to other broad peer-review outlets for guidance for everything from course selection to the true meaning of "business casual," the Wharton Women Forum provide specialized advice for women interested in business. Currently, we are in the process of overhauling the Forum to cater to the needs of our members and to make the site more user-friendly. If you have any suggestions for the Forum overhaul, please email me at jbwhite@sas.upenn.edu. So the next time your wondering whether or not that professor is really as bad as you've heard, head on over the Forum, the last item on the Wharton Women homepage menu, and find out.

- HOME
- EXECUTIVES
- EVENTS
- PHOTOS
- SPONSORS
- ALUMNAE
- NEWSLETTERS
- OPPORTUNITIES
- RESOURCES
- FORUM

FEEDBACK	TOPICS	POSTS	LAST POST
Questions? Comments? Leave 'em here.	1	1	by Lucy on Thu Oct 25, 2007 7:05 pm

Meet the New 2008 Board...

President

Shannon Knee

Secretary

Erica Nachamkin/Kristin Moore

Treasurer

Jillian Jourdain

VP of Alumnae Relations

Lucy Obukowicz

VP of Membership Development

Grace McGregor

Marketing and Publicity Chair

Erica Son

VP of Corporate Relations

Teresa Baik

VP of University Relations

Iris Uzdil

Newsletter Chair

Lauren Fleischer

Technology Chair

Jess White